JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 2020

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

I have told you this so that my joy might be in you and your joy might be complete. (John 15:11)

O Joyful God, whose powerful light never fades, whose amazing love never fails, and whose true life never dies, as we open the windows of our hearts to You in prayer this morning, may we be filled with the glory of Your presence, with the greatness of Your Spirit, and with the grandeur of Your grace.

Give to us the royalty of an inward joyfulness and the serenity of mind which comes from living close to You. Daily renew in us the sense of joy, and let Your eternal power dwell in our minds and bodies, filling every corner of our hearts with light and grace. Then may we be diffusers of life and may meet all stress with a gallant and sincere happiness, giving You thanks for all experiences in both joys and sorrows on this Ash Wednesday.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twenty-seventh day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-NINTH DAY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 2020

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Fill us at daybreak with your love, that all our days we may sing for joy. (Psalm 90:14)

O Eternal God, who is a tower of defense to all who put their trust in You, we come before You this moment of prayer in gratitude for Your steadfast love and for Your enduring faithfulness. In You alone is our hope, our strength, and our very life.

Inspire us, the representatives of our citizens, with a clear vision and a definite mission to meet the needs of our state with clean minds, understanding hearts, and loyal spirits. We pray that Your spirit of humility may be so alive with us that we will be legislators who put truth before falsehood, good will above ill will, self-denial in place of self-interest, and high principles over low prejudices, so shall we be champions of justice and peace, and so shall we continue to hold a high regard for persons everywhere. May Your will be accomplished in us and in all residents of the great state of Missouri.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Gage McKenzie.

The Journal of the twenty-eighth day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-SECOND DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 2020

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Jered Taylor.

Lord, we come before You on a beautiful February day, and we pause to give You thanks. In the hustle and bustle of life we recognize the power of prayer and the recognition of Your love and Your desire for us to worship You in prayer.

We ask that You humble us. Make us humble servants of You and serve our constituents humbly. We pray for wisdom in making the decisions that will affect the lives of Missourians, and we pray for civility in our chamber and awareness of how emotions cloud our decisions. Lord, use us to make the lives of Missourians better.

We thank You for sending Your Son to be the sacrifice of our sins, and we pray that we are an example of that love You show us to each other and to those we represent. Thank You for giving us this opportunity, and we pray that we do not waste it.

In Your name we pray.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Alex Baker and Olivia Baker.

The Journal of the twenty-first day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-THIRD DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2020

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Marilyn Seaton.

You are the light of the world. (Matthew 5:14)

Eternal God, spirit of light and life, in this day of distress, in this world of suffering and sorrow, we would purify our own hearts as we face the high responsibilities and great demands committed to our care and to our attention this day. Let our littleness be swallowed up in Your greatness, our pettiness in Your pursuing presence, and our trite criticisms in Your triumphant Spirit.

Before the altar of prayer we bow, confessing our faults, asking Your forgiveness, and praying that You will give us strength and wisdom that in these days we fail not humanity or You.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Sullivan Sulley Menne, Heydon Lawrence Muntzel, Michael Joseph Muntzel, Audrey Schnelting, Catherine Schnelting, and S.J. Schnelting.

The Journal of the twenty-second day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-FOURTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 2020

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. (1 Corinthians 13:7)

O God, fount of all that is good and true and beautiful, whose love endures forever, we thank You for the reverence which lifts our hearts to what is real, and for the love of home that reflects Your gracious Spirit. Bless, we pray You, those whom You have joined together. May their consecration be beautiful and everlasting.

We invoke Your blessing upon our labors this day, that we may help to build a better world in which men and women can live together in peace and good will and in which their children may grow into fuller humanity. Teach us that only through love can we begin to perceive the divine mysteries of life and the true glory of our relationship to each other. Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in steadfast love.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twenty-third day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-FIFTH DAY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 2020

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

You will show me the path to life, abounding joy in your presence. (Psalm 16:11)

O God, ruler of nations, You have surrounded us with your mercies. You have guided us with Your wisdom. You have blessed us with Your love. Continue to breathe upon us and fill us with life anew, that we may love what You do love and do what You would do, so may our lives be more worthy in Your sight and our labor be in accordance with Your holy will.

Deliver us from pride and prejudice and bless us with the glorious liberty of the open mind and the responsive heart. Clothe us with the spirit that never fails to bear the fruit of happiness, integrity and love.

Bless our Speaker, every member of this House, and all citizens of our beloved state.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twenty-fourth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

EIGHTEENTH DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 2020

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Steve Lynch.

Heavenly Father,

We are not here to file bills for filing's sake. We are not here to debate bills for debate's sake. We are not here to pass bills for passage's sake. We are not here to build relationships for relationship's sake.

Father, we are here for Missourians' sake. So Father, let us not be shaken by all the chaos and busyness of this place, but rather, let us be steady and faithful, focused and determined, giving our best every day for Kingdom's sake.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Henry Flynn Lavender and Oliver Hudson Lavender.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

NINETEENTH DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 2020

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

God is Spirit, and those who worship him must worship in Spirit and truth. (John 4:24)

O God of truth and love, without whom our world drifts into the valley of darkness and despair, let the light of Your Spirit glow within us as we worship You this moment. Deliver us from greed and bitterness, from misunderstanding and ill will, which are the seeds of contention and confusion. By the might of Your presence and by the strength of Your Spirit in our hearts, make us one in You. With this oneness may we launch out into an adventurous cooperation among all peoples, which shall be a pattern of life for our own state.

Underneath all differences of creation, help us to see human life struggling to be free and to find satisfaction on higher levels of daily life. We believe You are showing us the way in Your word; help us to walk in it, to the glory of Your name and for the good of our citizens.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Madison Hallsten and Andrew Hallsten.

The Journal of the eighteenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTIETH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 2020

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

The Lord is my helper, and I will not be afraid. (John 11:9)

Eternal God, in whom we live and move and have our being, we are children of Yours – creatures of Your hands, sustained by Your spirit, redeemed by Your love, and guided by Your wisdom. Steady us, we pray, and give us strength to do what we ought to do. Save us from accepting too easy answers to the problems that confront us. Save us from yielding to the temptation to accept the second best when the best can be easily ours.

By the power of an inner, powerful spiritual triumph, may we conquer all pettiness, all narrowness, and all unworthy desires. May we put first that which is first, second that which is second, and last that which is last. May Your Spirit rule our hearts, and together may we serve our state to the limit of our faith and our ability.

And the House says, “Amen!”

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the nineteenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-FIRST DAY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2020

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

For thus said the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel: By waiting and by calm you shall be saved, in quiet and in trust your strength lies. (Isaiah 30:15)

O Ancient God, eternal source of wisdom, power, and love, whose mercy is over all Your works and whose will is ever directed to Your children's good, in quietness and in confidence we lift our hearts unto You. In the assurance of Your presence, we face the responsibilities of this day.

May the brightness and the glory of cooperation dwell in our hearts, and may all ill will vanish. Fill us with kindness, compassion, and understanding, with all those moral qualities which make our life together a happy and enduring experience. May we lead our citizens away from the treacherous road of deceit, hypocrisy, and pretense and along the pathway of justice, freedom, and peace. Thus, may we follow You all the days of our lives.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twentieth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27, authorizes the Governor to control the rate at which any appropriation is expended by allotment and, further, authorizes the Governor to reduce the expenditures of the state or any of its agencies below their appropriations whenever the actual revenues are less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based; and

WHEREAS, in addition to the power to control the rate of expenditure established in Article IV, Section 27, three percent of each appropriation, with the exception of amounts for personal service to pay salaries fixed by law, shall be set aside pursuant to section 33.290, RSMo, as a reserve fund and not subject to expenditure except with the approval of the Governor; and

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27.2, provides that the Governor notify the General Assembly “whenever the rate at which any appropriation shall be expended is not equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation”; and

WHEREAS, due to a variety of factors, including the three percent reserve that is legally required by section 33.290, RSMo, the rate at which most appropriations are expended is not in “equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation”; and

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27.3, provides that the Governor notify the General Assembly “when the governor reduces one or more items or portions of items of appropriation of money as a result of actual revenues being less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based.”

NOW THEREFORE, I, Michael L. Parson, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27, do hereby make the following notification to the One Hundredth General Assembly of the State of Missouri:

I hereby notify the General Assembly, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27.2 of the Missouri Constitution, that through the second quarter of fiscal year 2020, the rate of expenditure for each of the appropriation lines in the fiscal year 2020 budget attached as Exhibit A is not in equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation.

I further notify the General Assembly, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27.3 of the Missouri Constitution, that I have taken no action to permanently reduce one or more items or portions of items of appropriation of money as a result of actual revenues being less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based in the fiscal year 2020 budget.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Missouri, in the City of Jefferson, this 13th day of February, 2020.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FOURTEENTH DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 2020

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Kenneth Wilson.

Heavenly Father, the great architect of the universe, the creator of all things, the giver of every good and perfect gift, hear us this day as we seek Your blessing upon our work here today.

Just as we are united together in our prayers, so may we be united in our work. In our deliberations may our eyes be open that we can clearly see what You are doing. May our ears be open that we will clearly hear what You are saying to us, and may our actions and words clearly give testimony to You in our lives.

We ask that You give us all what we need that we might govern ourselves accordingly. We ask these things in the strong name of Jesus, our Lord.

And the House says, "Amen"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the thirteenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTEENTH DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 2020

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord. (Psalm 33:12)

O awesome God, who is the creator and the sustainer of all peoples, without whose blessing all our labor is in vain, we pray that our lives may be built not upon the shifting sands of superficial and shallow living but upon the rock of eternal truth and enduring love. So we come to offer to You once again the devotion of our hearts, the dedication of our minds, and the discipline of our lives. May this moment of devotion at the beginning of this day be the open door to an increasing fellowship with You and with one another.

We are mindful of the experiences and the events which bind us together as a state during Black History Month. By a common devotion to a common cause – the welfare of our beloved state – may we close ranks, and by understanding, sympathy and goodwill bring together our different peoples, heal the rifts between us, and make us united in spirit, eager to do Your will and to keep Your commandments.

And the House says, “Amen!”

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the fourteenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TENTH DAY, MONDAY, JANUARY 27, 2020

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Suzie Pollock.

Dear precious Heavenly Father,

Thank You for the scriptures in Proverbs 2:6-8.

“For the Lord gives wisdom, and from His mouth come knowledge and understanding.

He holds success in store for the upright, He is a shield to those whose walk is blameless, for He guards the course of the just and protects the way of his faithful ones.”

Thank You, Lord, for all these things that You freely give to those who ask. I humbly ask that You direct every word that is spoken in this chamber and give us eyes to see Your truth. Remove any hindrance, like arrogance and pride, that keeps us from doing Your will.

Bless the faithful and convict the wayward ones back into Your sweet peace and contentment. Help us all to seek Your wisdom first and love others as thyself.

In Your most holy and perfect name.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the eighth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

ELEVENTH DAY, TUESDAY, JANUARY 28, 2020

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

God has showed you what is good; and what does the Lord require of you, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God? (Micah 6:8)

O Loving God, whose will it is that we do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with You, grant to us, as we wait upon You, the great confidence to do what we ought to do, the intense courage not to do what we ought not to do, and the enlightened wisdom to see our ways clearly. Deliver us and our state from division and disunity. May we find our center and our unity in You. Give to each one of us the consciousness of Your presence, the continual strength of Your Spirit, and the constant awareness of our duty to lead our people in the ways of freedom, justice and peace.

Help us, as we begin again, to keep our faith in You, and may this session keep us walking in the ways of Your commandments all the days of our lives here in the People's House.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the tenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWELFTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 29, 2020

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

For you were called for freedom. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather, serve one another through love. (Galatians 5:13)

Almighty God, who is ever seeking entrance into our lives, forever knocking at the door of our hearts – we open our spirits to You in prayer this moment.

We pray humbly and sincerely for our people and state – this beloved Missouri, where we can speak our minds without fear, where we can pray or not as we choose, and where we can elect those who govern us. May she now and ever be free and the home of the brave.

We pray also for the captive nations of the world – the oppressed people of our planet. Grant that they may keep alive their outreach for liberation to those who sit in darkness, and those who walk through the valley of the shadow of death. May the consciousness of Your presence bring courage to endure and strength to overcome.

During these winter days, help us to think clearly, to make decisions wisely, and to do courageously what is right and good for all citizens. Above all, may we put our trust in You and keep this faith as long as we live and serve.

And the House says, “Amen!”

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the eleventh day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTEENTH DAY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 30, 2020

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

May your kindness, Lord, be upon us; we have put our hope in you. (Psalm 33:22)

O Eternal and Ancient God, we pause in Your presence with heads bowed in prayer as we begin the demanding duties of this day. Make Your powerful Spirit be real to us, for we need You; every hour we need You. Temptations lose their power when You are near our hearts.

We come concerned by the spirits of our day, weighed down by worry, concerned by our failure to do what really needs to be done, tempted at times to give up – yet here we are. Give us the humility and patience we need for this hour, the courage to do what is best for our state and the confidence to leave the results with You.

And the House says, “Amen!”

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twelfth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

The Sergeant-at-Arms announced the approach of the Honorable George W. Draper III, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Missouri. Chief Justice Draper was duly escorted to the House Chamber and to the Speaker's dais, where he delivered the following message to the Assembly in Joint Session.

STATE OF THE JUDICIARY ADDRESS BY CHIEF JUSTICE GEORGE W. DRAPER III

Lieutenant Governor Kehoe, Secretary of State Ashcroft, Treasurer Fitzpatrick, Attorney General Schmitt, President Pro Tem Schatz, Speaker Haahr, members of this 100th General Assembly, the executive branch and the judicial branch. This opportunity signifies the ultimate cooperation between our branches, tasked with delivering good government and justice for the people we serve. On behalf of my colleagues and myself, we are honored to be here and welcome this time to inform you of the State of your Judiciary.

Bicentennial

History is the tie that binds, and in that regard, let me begin by telling you a bit of my history. I am the great-grandson of a North Carolina slave girl and a union soldier on my mother's side, and a dark-skinned black man from Florida and third-generation German immigrant woman from New Jersey on my father's side. My parents met in college at Howard University in Washington, D.C. They came to Missouri in 1949 so my father could teach at Lincoln, the "separate but equal" law school this legislature had created a decade earlier for Negroes. Then, and as chief of the criminal division in the attorney general's office in the 1950s, he was prevented from dining in certain restaurants here in Jefferson City. This phenomenon was not surprising – after all, our state entered the union as a slave state, via the 1821 Missouri Compromise, and our courts were the genesis of the infamous Dred Scott decision that precipitated the civil war just 40 years later.

Since then, there has been great change, and this year, we celebrate the bicentennial of our Supreme Court. In fact, our Court has instituted a "bicentennial minute" into our conferences. I will share a few highlights with you today.

The first constitution, adopted in July 1820, created for us a three-member Supreme Court. By the way, so coveted was the position that, of the first three individuals Governor Alexander McNair sought to appoint to our now prominent bench, only one accepted – the other two said “no thank you.”

Much has changed over the past two centuries. Rather than “riding the circuit” and meeting in courthouses throughout the state, we now have a permanent home – our third, actually... the red-brick building across the street – for which our Court’s first female clerk is overseeing restoration efforts. Early tools of our trade included quill and ink. Yet now we stream our sessions live and publish our decisions online. We are now a seven-member Court. Of the four women who have served on our Court, three are currently on its bench, and I am only the second African-American.

Historically and significantly, we are honored to have with us the first African-American to serve on our Court – and a former member of this great legislative body – now a federal district judge in St. Louis, I give you The Honorable Ronnie White. Please stand and be recognized, your honor. Thank you.

Although women of color have yet to serve on our Supreme Court, since 1983 several have been members of your state’s judiciary. A former member of that group is here today. An accomplished lawyer in her own right, having once served as general counsel for our Missouri Department of Corrections, my best friend since our law school days at Howard – and my wife of 40 years – The Honorable Judy Preddy Draper. Please help me welcome her this morning. I am also really proud to introduce you to the third generation of lawyers from our family – or, as she reminds me, the most highly educated member of our family – the deputy chief of staff to the St. Louis County prosecutor, our daughter, Miss Chelsea Westin Draper.

Circuit realignment

To bring you another “bicentennial minute,” you might be interested to learn that Missouri’s first constitution established only four circuit courts, each serving four to eight counties! Now our 114 counties and the city of St. Louis are divided into 46 judicial circuits, with our constitution requiring at least one judge in every county.

In 2013, through section 478.073, RSMo, this legislative body authorized the Judicial Conference of Missouri to determine what alteration, if any, is necessary for the geographic boundaries of the state’s current judicial circuits. Prior circuit adjustments had been made solely by this legislature.

I do not have to tell the members of this body how incredibly diverse our state is, from vibrant cities to glistening waterways to the hills and valleys of our Ozarks, and how unique the personalities can be of all our cities, towns and villages. To ensure input reflecting the judicial and geographic diversity of our state, we established a 16-member judicial realignment task force.

They have worked diligently over the past two years, making reasonable compromises, to bring to you an honestly workable circuit court realignment plan. Please join me in recognizing this very hard-working group!

The process was arduous, governed by the factors in section 478.073 to determine optimal circuit configuration. Key in the study was mapping various factors to determine if disparities exist between circuits with regard to workload, delay and travel, and how changes in circuit boundaries would affect any observed disparities. Two factors provided strong guidance for circuit realignment – excessive judicial travel and the location of a primary business center across current circuit boundaries. In the report you received last week, the task force recommended moving two counties, resulting in the realignment of only four circuits.

The first recommendation is to move Carter County from the 37th circuit, which now has four counties, to the 36th circuit, which now has two counties. Realigning these circuits will allow Carter County residents to conduct court business where they conduct all their other business – across the current circuit boundary in Poplar Bluff.

The second recommendation is to move Benton County from the 30th circuit, which now has five counties, to the 27th circuit, which now has three counties. The major reason for this recommendation is driving distance, as it now takes one hour and 40 minutes to drive from Warsaw on one end of the circuit to Marshfield on the other. Under the realignment, the 30th circuit’s longest drive time would be 30 minutes faster. Less time behind a steering wheel means more time on the bench to serve our citizens.

This report is evidence that we are all here to serve the citizens of the great state of Missouri. In the words of Mark Twain:

I hate to hear people say this Judge will vote so and so, because he is a Democrat – and this one so and so because he is a Republican. It is shameful. The Judges have the Constitution for their guidance; they have no right to any politics save the politics of rigid right and justice when they are sitting in judgment upon the great matters that come before them.

As you examine the proposed realignment plan, please note that the Judicial Conference of Missouri – at its annual business meeting, held last fall pursuant to section 476.330, RSMo – endorsed and adopted the plan without dissent.

Court technology

As the example with the realignment report shows, some changes in our justice system have been facilitated by the legislature. But many are driven by the courts – and the public we serve.

Perhaps the most transformative of these changes has been technology. Missouri was among the very first states to institute court automation more than two decades ago, altering the way we do business and enhancing the public's ability to participate electronically in cases. They now can sign up for text or e-mail alerts about cases they are following; they can plead guilty and pay fines electronically; and soon we are piloting a new program to let people who have received a ticket file documents, message the prosecutor and submit a proposed sentencing agreement all from their mobile devices.

Let me take this opportunity to thank you for the $2 million in funding you provided our court automation systems last session. The current court automation fee covers only a third of the funding needed to support our case management system, which runs on 25-year-old technology and is likely to reach the end of its meaningful life in as little as 18 months.

We are working hard to build a new system to replace it – we have completed state traffic, ordinance and associate criminal cases; nearly all St. Louis County municipal divisions plus those in 60 other local communities are using it; and we expect to have all criminal cases moved into the new system by the end of this fiscal year. But to continue developing the system at a viable pace, to protect against cyber threats, and to implement more user-friendly features for our citizens, we are asking you to consider an additional $2.8 million in funding as you plan Missouri's fiscal 2021 budget.

Treatment courts

Technology is not the only change the public has demanded over the last 200 years. We currently face a period of change ... and criminal justice reform.

Missouri has been on the national forefront in the fight against addiction. When our courts were established 200 years ago, they were designed merely to resolve disputes. Our courts are now called upon to help resolve the most pressing problems facing our society.

This legislative body passed the first treatment court legislation in 1998. Twenty years later, as the state was grappling with the rising opioid epidemic, this body passed legislation standardizing the way our treatment courts operate and ensuring consistency for treatment court participants. You also authorized our treatment courts to accept participants from locations with no local treatment court, vastly expanding the reach of services. In 2019, you restored core funding and appropriated additional funding to expand the full spectrum of treatment court services.

For all of these actions: thank you! As a result of this collaboration among all three branches of government, Missouri now has more than 100 counties served by more than 120 treatment courts – adult, juvenile, family and DWI courts. And because of House Bill 547, which you also passed last year, we will have treatment courts established in every circuit in the state by August 2021.

The judiciary has also been hard at work to continue improving our treatment courts. During 2019, a task force met monthly to formulate rigorous standards ensuring ongoing consistency and effectiveness for our adult treatment courts. The state's treatment court coordinating commission is scheduled to vote on these standards at its quarterly meeting at the end of this month.

Together, we have built a strong foundation from which our state can continue to fight the substance abuse crisis on multiple fronts – alcohol, opioids and, as health officials have forecast, another rise in methamphetamine use.

Perhaps more significant to you will be the fact we now have 15 treatment courts serving the special needs of veterans in 40 counties. Because of legislation you enacted last session, section 478.001.7, RSMo, makes “it ... the public policy of this state to encourage and provide an alternative method for the disposal of cases for military veterans and current military personnel with substance use disorders, mental health disorders, or co-occurring disorders.” For some, these may be just words on paper. But for the 401 veterans who were helped last year through our treatment courts, it represents a win-win for all Missourians by helping those who have served our country regain their lives while reducing crime and improving public safety.

Criminal justice reform

Now, the use of treatment courts is not the only way to improve our criminal justice system. Last year, we made significant changes to our rules governing misdemeanor and felony criminal procedures, including pretrial release, as well as rules governing ordinance violations. Together, these reforms alleviate practices inconsistent with our state constitutional mandates to guarantee bail with sufficient sureties in all but capital offenses and to not require excessive bail or impose excessive fines.

In addition, this legislative body took actions last year that are likely to make a positive impact on the lives of our citizens for many years to come. As a body, you chose to expand the crimes for which an individual can seek an expungement. You also authorized prosecutors to enter into agreements with defendants to send certain criminal cases into diversion programs, allowing them to avoid prosecution altogether when appropriate.

While these reforms are important to improving our criminal justice system, one additional segment needs your attention. I spent a decade as a prosecutor in the city of St. Louis, serving as first assistant in my last year before becoming a trial judge. In most of my cases and those of the prosecutors I supervised, opposing counsel was a public defender. Speaking from the perspective of both a former prosecutor and a former trial judge, I can tell you the system simply does not work without a sufficiently funded and staffed public defender system.

To be sure, all attorneys in public service work long, hard hours, and many are underpaid and under-recognized. But if criminal cases cannot be moved efficiently through the system because of overloaded attorneys, we risk leaving those who are guilty on the street, those who are not guilty unable to return to being productive members of society, and victims and their families powerless to find closure and move forward with their lives. Together, we all share the burden of our state constitutional mandate demanding that “justice shall be administered without sale, denial or delay.”

21st century workforce

Now, in evaluating the state's successes during 2019, our governor focused on the importance of workforce development. In the judiciary, we, too, are focused on the 3,600 or so individuals – your constituents – who facilitate the daily business of our state courts.

As the chief justice of the United States said in his year-end report: “[W]e should ... remember that justice is not inevitable. We should reflect on our duty to judge without fear or favor, deciding each matter with humility, integrity, and dispatch ... to do our best to maintain the public's trust that we are faithfully discharging our solemn obligation to equal justice under law.”

We judges cannot faithfully discharge our duties under the law or maintain public trust and confidence without the support of the thousands of employees who become the faces of justice for so many who walk into our courthouses. It is in support of these employees that we have developed the 21st century workforce plan.

We simply cannot ask these people – who reside in your communities and work in our court system – to live below the value of their service. On their behalf, we thank you for your appropriations over the past few years of salary increases to bring our lowest-paid staff to at least the base of where our classification and compensation study shows they should be. But if we want to retain the good employees we have, and be able to recruit high-quality workers as positions become open, we need to move our staff toward market salary goals.

Conclusion

As we all enter this new year, this new decade, and new century of Missouri courts, together we have the opportunity to look back on how far we have come since Missouri's first constitution was adopted 200 years ago. After 25 years of working my way through the judiciary – as an associate circuit judge, circuit judge, appellate judge and now Supreme Court judge – fulfilling my family's legacy of service, I have come to appreciate the Court in its broadest sense, as an institution existing well beyond the seven of us who may sit at any given time.

In every branch of service, we have always had an imperative – to consider the legacy we will leave for all those yet to come. When Missourians 200 years from now look back upon this time, and examine all our works, reforms, and accomplishments, I hope they will find us to have been leaders ... innovators ... collaborators ... who left our state greater than we found it and fully supported those who toiled in and built cooperation among our co-equal branches of government.

Thank you.

REPORTS

January 16, 2020

Elijah Haahr, Speaker
House of Representatives
State Capitol Building
Jefferson City, MO 65101

Dave Schatz, President Pro Tempore
Missouri Senate
State Capitol Building
Jefferson City, MO 65101

Dear Mister Speaker and Mister President Pro Tempore:

The Task Force on Wind Energy has met, taken testimony, deliberated and concluded its review of the method in which wind energy equipment owned by a public utility company is assessed and taxed statewide. The below listed committee members are pleased to submit the attached report:

/s/ Chairman Representative Allen Andrews
/s/ Representative Travis Fitzwater
/s/ Representative Tracy McCreery
/s/ Wendy Nordwald, Warren County Assessor

/s/ Vice Chairman Senator Cindy O'Laughlin
/s/ Senator Ed Emery
Senator Shalonn Curls
/s/ Susette Taylor, Atchison County Clerk

Sincerely,

/s/ Representative Allen Andrews
Committee Chair

INTRODUCTION

In the 2019 session of the Missouri General Assembly, members filed several bills to address the method in which wind turbines are assessed for property tax purposes. Through the testimony heard on the proposed bills, it became clear that there need to be a standard method to assess turbines throughout the state and that the tax revenue was important to the rural communities and needed to stay in the local taxing jurisdiction.

In response to these concerns, the General Assembly passed House Bill 220, which among other provisions, stated that beginning January 1, 2020, any public utility company which has ownership of any real or personal property associated with a project that directly uses wind energy to generate electricity will be taxed using a standardized methodology and that any real or tangible personal property associated with a project which uses wind energy directly to generate electricity will be valued and taxed by any state and local authorities having jurisdiction.

The bill also establishes the "Task Force on Wind Energy" to look into the concerns surrounding the assessment of turbines throughout the state. The members of the task force included Representative Andrews (Chair), Senator O'Laughlin (Vice-Chair), Representatives Fitzwater and McCreery, Senators Emery and Curls, Susette Taylor, Atchison County Clerk, and Wendy Nordwald, Warren County Assessor.

The task force held two public hearings on September 12 in Jefferson City and October 24 in Kansas City.

SUMMARY OF PUBLIC TESTIMONY

I. September 12 Conference Call

At the September 12, 2019, conference call in Jefferson City, the task force elected a chair and vice chair, but took no public testimony.

II. October 24 Hearing

At the October 24, 2019, hearing in Kansas City, the task force heard testimony from several county officials including those appointed to the task force, wind energy developers, several utility companies involved in the production of energy in the state, and the State Tax Commission.

The county officials testifying before the committee stated that at least 35 states have utility-scale wind turbines and the tax assessments of the turbines range from a tax exemption to the cost of replacement less depreciation. The county officials testified that using a variation of the cost method for assessments would be the simplest method to standardize tax assessments across the state.

The wind energy developers and the utility companies both testified that the most important factors in tax assessments was predictability and uniformity across the state. The developers stated that the price per megawatt method is most predictable. If the cost method was used, it would be helpful, but varying levies would make it less predictable than the price per megawatt method.

The State Tax Commission testified that no statutory change would be necessary to continue to use the cost method to assess wind turbines. However, the General Assembly could tighten the language to ensure consistency in the application of the cost method across the state.

The taskforce concluded the meeting with an agreement to develop potential statutory changes to codify the use of the cost method for the assessment of wind turbines and would present the proposed legislation to the taskforce at a later meeting.

RECOMMENDATIONS

I. Standardize the Property Assessment of Wind Energy Projects

- A. Develop a statutory framework for local assessors to use a cost approach for assigning value to all real property, excluding land, or tangible personal property utilized in generating energy using wind.
- B. Develop a depreciation schedule that accounts for the depreciation of such property that uses:
 1. The original property cost provided by the taxpayer; or
 2. In the absence of the cost provided by the taxpayer, the assessor may use a cost guide.

II. Repeal Section 393.1073, RSMo

- A. This section established the Task Force on Wind Energy and will expire on December 31, 2019.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRD DAY, MONDAY, JANUARY 13, 2020

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Kenneth Wilson.

Heavenly Father, the creator of all things, the giver of every good and perfect gift. Before we become involved in the routine of this day, we stand and quietly pause to join hearts in prayer in our acknowledgement of our great need of Your guidance. We know by our own power and human understanding that we need Your help. You know each one of us by name. You know the number of hairs on our heads. You know our secrets. You know our fears. You know our hopes and our dreams for the future.

Forgive us, Father, our faults and failures of the past, and set us free from them. Forgive us when our pride keeps us from applying to ourselves the same standards of conduct that we so loudly demand of others. Father, as we begin the work of this new year, of this new session, we pray that in our differences we may be kind, that in our agreements we may be humble, and that Your will be done in each of us, and through us, as we serve in our various positions of power. We know that the voice of criticism will come, that the pressures of the office will come. We pray that we will all hear and listen to Your voice and follow Your guidance that we may all be better and do better as we work together for the good of all the people of this great state.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FOURTH DAY, TUESDAY, JANUARY 14, 2020

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Dirk Deaton.

Most Gracious God, we bow our heads before You today, as we humble ourselves before You the Creator of all things.

Before us, a task for which we are wholly inadequate. Lord, we need each other, but more than this, we need You. Today, we declare this need before You, the one who created us from the dust and breathed life into our bodies.

Every member of this body will soon return to dust, but our souls and what we do here will live on. May we conduct ourselves in accordance with our oath and in a way that honors You.

We come before You and pray for wisdom, discernment, and strength. As we do so, we know that the eyes and the prayers of Missourians everywhere are upon us.

As we experience the blessings of a new year and a new legislative session, may we give You all glory and honor as You alone are worthy of praise.

And as You taught us how to pray, "Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever."

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Sergeant-at-Arms announced the approach of the Honorable Michael L. Parson, Governor of the State of Missouri. The Governor was duly escorted to the House Chamber and the Speaker's dais, where he delivered the following message to the Assembly in Joint Session.

STATE OF THE STATE
ADDRESS BY GOVERNOR MICHAEL L. PARSON

Statewide leaders, legislators, and special guests.

Thank you for the warm welcome and the honor of being here today to present the State of the State.

It was not long ago that I stood here and laid out a bold plan for the future of Missouri.

Back then, many were worried about the direction of our state. Some of you were probably worried about how your new Governor would lead and address the problems within Missouri.

But, because I love this state and the people of this state, I knew I was ready for that challenge, and with your help, ready to chart a new path for Missouri.

A path that would push us to the forefront of the nation by providing more opportunities for our citizens and make Missouri a destination for others around the country ready to embrace our Show Me way of life.

I also want to thank the many of you in this room and the thousands around the state who had confidence in me, supported my vision, and offered me patience at a trying time for Missouri.

Even though it was a challenging time, it was also an opportunity to do things differently, to tackle tough problems, and propose bold solutions, and with your help, we have made tremendous progress.

That is why I am confident telling you today that the state of our state is strong, and by working together, we will be ready for an even better future.

One year ago, I told you my administration would take a very disciplined approach to working for the people of Missouri and that workforce development and infrastructure must be our dedicated priorities.

Focusing on these issues would allow us to not only make short-term gains for our state, but also provide long-term stability and a solid foundation for future generations.

They were issues that we worked on together, regardless of party or region of the state.

And, most importantly, after listening to community, civic, and business leaders from across Missouri, I knew they shared the same belief that these issues would help strengthen every community across our state.

In fact, in just a single year, Missouri's workforce development agenda has caught the attention of the rest of the country.

Other states are now watching us and taking notes, and we are rapidly working towards our goal of becoming the Best in the Midwest, and frankly, the best in the nation.

For example, through our collaboration with employers, we now have 42,000 Missourians signed up for on-the-job training through the One Start program... 42,000.

We have reached second in the nation for apprenticeships, and we fully intend to keep that momentum going.

Our Fast Track scholarship program has reached hundreds of applications, and I am very proud that these scholarships are primarily used at our community colleges where women make up 61% of the total enrollment.

Another workforce development program I'm very proud of is ASPIRE MO, a 20-week program that helps incarcerated women develop business plans and prepare for successful re-entry into the workforce.

With us today in the upper gallery is Emily Kirchhoff and Nigaila Gibbs.

Both of these ladies served in the Vandalia women's correctional center.

Both of them would tell you they made poor choices in the past, but they stand before us today as graduates of ASPIRE MO.

Through this program, they have shown dedication to learning new skills, taking responsibility, getting back on their feet, and into the workforce.

Ms. Kirchhoff is employed at a call center that connects veterans to healthcare services.

Ms. Gibbs is employed at Americold, a storage and logistics company in St. Louis.

If we are to be a society that believes in forgiveness and second chances, then it is the next chapter in their lives that will matter most.

Please join me in recognizing Ms. Kirchhoff and Ms. Gibbs.

Please know we believe in you, we support you, and we wish you the best in the days to come.

The opportunities we have provided for individuals to better themselves – and in return provide a more stable environment for their families – will truly change lives long after all of us are gone.

When we talk about these successes in workforce development, it is also worth pointing out that real incomes are rising faster than any time in recent history.

More people have more money in their pockets, and the tax cuts at the state and federal level are absolutely having a positive impact here in Missouri.

Missouri now ranks 7th in the nation for small business wage growth.

And at 3.1 percent, our unemployment rate continues to remain at historic lows, and has been below the national unemployment rate for 40 consecutive months, another example that Missouri's growth is strong, and we are on the right track.

Not to mention that the African American unemployment rate in Missouri has dropped from over 10 percent in 2014 to 5.5 percent today.

Our workforce efforts have created over 40,000 new jobs since I took office... 40,000 new jobs.

And, more importantly, it is the private sector that is driving these investments, not government.

And here are just a few examples:

The Fortune 250 Agri-business company Bunge announced the relocation of its global headquarters from New York to St. Louis.

Bayer announced it will add 500 new jobs to the St. Louis region, and Pfizer also invested over $230 million dollars.

Boeing secured a $16 billion dollar contract to build the TX trainer, and NGA West just broke ground on their billion dollar campus in St. Louis.

On the other side of the state, companies like Swiss Re, Faurecia, CVS, and Waddell & Reed have made huge investments in the area.

And of course, Kansas City beat more than 130 other cities around the country to land two divisions from the USDA and over 500 new jobs for the first time in our nation's history.

Our big cities aren't the only ones generating new jobs and attracting investment.

Briggs and Stratton is creating 130 new jobs in Poplar Bluff. Dollar Tree invested $110 million dollars for a new distribution center in Warrensburg, creating 375 new jobs.

Nucor Steel, the largest steel company in the United States, is close to production at its $250 million dollar steel mill that will create 250 new jobs in Sedalia, Missouri.

Aurora Organic Dairy opened a new processing plant in Columbia, creating over 100 new jobs, and Purina invested $115 million dollars to expand in Bloomfield.

And, about one month ago, General Motors announced one of the largest single project investments in our state's history in Wentzville with a $1.5 billion dollar investment to build midsize trucks for North America.

And we like our trucks here in Missouri.

This is just the beginning, and these successes will help us build further momentum.

All of these are shared successes and show that by working together, our investments in workforce development and infrastructure are succeeding.

I am proud to report we have exceeded even our own estimates, and the result has been better cost savings and more projects for the people of Missouri.

As a matter of fact, Senator Schatz and Representative Ruth, I want to thank you for your leadership on getting the bridge bonding resolution completed, and let you know that our first round of bonds was achieved at an interest rate of 1.25 percent.

And, what triggered these bonds was an $81.2 million dollar INFRA grant from the U.S. Department of Transportation to build the Rocheport Bridge.

Even more to celebrate are the vital grants we have received to complete the MacArthur Bridge in St. Louis, make significant improvements to the River Port in Cape Girardeau, solidify the East Locust reservoir project in northern Missouri, and finally wrap-up funding for the I-49 Bella Vista Bypass in Southwest Missouri.

I appreciate the support and leadership from our federal delegation in securing those funds, especially Congressman Sam Graves and Senator Roy Blunt.

These projects are critically important to their regions, and I am proud of MoDOT's hard work to leverage every tax dollar to the fullest and make our transportation system safer for ALL Missourians.

In addition to these projects, we got an even better return than expected on the infrastructure cost-share program you all passed.

I am excited to tell you that this nearly $50 million dollar investment will lead to nearly $150 million dollars in new infrastructure investment, and an economic impact of approximately $350 million dollars.

The bold infrastructure proposals we all worked on together have netted $1 billion dollars in new projects for our state.

There is so much excitement and optimism across all parts of the state, but right here in Jefferson City, we shook things up a little more.

We stopped talking about reform and pushed through real reforms that have changed state government for the better.

Our first reorganization effort of state government took effect this past August, impacting hundreds of state employees.

These changes represent the most significant reorganization of state government in decades.

This was the right thing to do to make government more efficient, more accountable, and more customer oriented to the people we serve.

As part of our efforts to improve state government, we also successfully consolidated a state prison that will save us $22 million dollars every year.

And, on top of this, through greater efficiency, better management, and more accountability to the Missouri taxpayers, we gave our state employees a much-needed pay raise.

An effort like that does not happen if you don't have bold leaders who are dedicated to making state government better, so I would like to recognize all of my cabinet members seated in the rear gallery.

Please stand and be recognized.

I am proud of the support and commitment you show this state every day, and it is my honor to serve alongside you.

We have made record improvements in just a short period of time, but I believe there is still more to do and much more we can achieve with hard work.

Of course, it is important to know that these bold ideas are working. But, most importantly, it is about the impact it has on the lives of the everyday people of Missouri.

That is why my call this legislative session is to propose initiatives aimed at building stronger communities, improving education and workforce development, revitalizing our infrastructure, and making government more accountable.

It is critical to understand that all of these issues provide individuals with more opportunities, strengthen public safety, and create healthier and more stable communities, and I have learned that no one knows more about their communities than the mayors.

Seated in the upper gallery are the mayors and police chiefs of the four largest metro areas of our state.

Mayor Quinton Lucas of Kansas City, Mayor Lyda Krewson of St. Louis, Mayor Ken McClure of Springfield, and Mayor Brian Treece of Columbia.

All of these mayors care deeply about their cities, just as I care deeply about our entire state. We all know that Missouri is diverse, and so are the opinions and needs of the people within it.

But, regardless of what part of the state we come from, we all want our communities to be safe, and we worry when we see violent criminals threaten our neighborhoods.

That concern for our citizens brought the five of us together.

Despite our varied backgrounds and differing opinions, we have stayed focused on what we can accomplish by working together, while also showing respect and willingness to listen to one another.

These mayors understand my commitment to support the second amendment for law abiding citizens.

And let me be clear.

During my 6 years in the Army, 22 years in law enforcement, and as a lifetime member of the NRA, I have never wavered in my support for the Second Amendment.

But, we all have to understand the very real issue of violent crime affecting our neighborhoods and the potential consequence of doing nothing.

By working together, we have come up with solutions to help combat violent crime, such as:

- Providing greater protection for victims and witnesses.
- Providing more mental health resources and services.
- And, finally strengthening our laws to target violent criminals.

We won't always agree, and there will always be issues we each feel passionately about.

But, I am confident that by working together, the potential for our regions and the entire state of Missouri is even greater.

Please join me in recognizing the mayors and police chiefs of Kansas City, St. Louis, Springfield, and Columbia, Missouri.

We will continue to promote initiatives that incorporate more mental health resources into public safety, provide more targeted and tactical support for the pursuit of violent criminals, and encourage more coordination among law enforcement.

We know some of these efforts are already paying off.

Between Operation Triple Beam in Kansas City and our commitment of state personnel in St. Louis, remarkable results have been achieved, including:

- The arrest of hundreds of violent criminals,
- Gang members,
- And the seizure of nearly 30 pounds of illegal drugs.

With us here today are members of the Missouri Highway Patrol and the Division of Fire Safety who have been part of these efforts in St. Louis.

Please join me in recognizing their hard work and commitment to protecting the people of Missouri.

These results reflect real progress, and show that by all of us working together – federal, state, and local law enforcement, and community leaders – we can make a difference and keep violent criminals off our streets.

I also want to point out that we included community leaders.

As Governor, I have the greatest honor and privilege of representing all parts of our state, but I have learned the most powerful voice is often the one in the community.

With us here today are several members of the Missouri Faith Leadership Coalition.

I want to thank them for stepping up, leading by actions and not just words, putting their communities and congregations ahead of politics, and helping me better understand the struggles their communities face.

These leaders are also special to me because I know we all have a special faith.

And it is that special faith that allowed us to look past whatever differences we may have, and come together for a purpose higher than any one of us.

Would the members of the Missouri Faith Leadership Coalition please stand to be recognized?

There is also another special guest I would like to recognize today - Mrs. Bernice Jones.

By looking at us, you might not think Mrs. Jones and I have much in common.

But one Saturday at a Grill for Glory event, we realized we both have an immense love for children.

Mrs. Jones has 13 grandchildren, and I have six. Being a grandparent is something we both cherish.

I also learned that Mrs. Jones has been involved in her same community in St. Louis for over 50 years, keeping an eye on things, offering assistance to youth, and always serving others.

Sadly, she and I met because of the tragedy of children being shot in the street, but this also made me realize something else very important about working together.

We need to take more time to celebrate community leaders like Mrs. Jones who are making a real difference.

Not those who are trying to tear it apart and relish in the fear they create by headlines in the newspapers.

When it is hard to find the light in a bad situation, sometimes a spark is all you need to get the fire going again. Mrs. Jones has been that spark in her community.

She had the chance to leave, but she chose not to.

Mrs. Jones stayed to fight the fight and has truly changed lives for the better.

Please join me in recognizing Mrs. Jones.

As a former sheriff, it is important to me that we also give special thanks to those who risk their lives to keep our safe.

Our law enforcement and emergency personnel do a job that most people don't want to do, but others expect them to do it.

We must trust them, and stand up for these brave men and women.

I hope that this legislative session, serious time and consideration will be given to these proposals to strengthen our communities.

While reducing violent crime is our immediate goal, I strongly believe that at the end of the day, it is about better education and skills to get a quality job because that is going to be the long-term solution.

Last year, our workforce development efforts focused on new training opportunities for working adults.

However, in some of our most troubled communities, or any community in Missouri for that matter, our children are the true workforce of tomorrow.

The most important and impactful time of a child's development is the early years of his or her life.

Missouri recently received a $33.5 million dollar preschool development grant aimed at creating a more effective, high-quality early learning system.

With this funding, we have the opportunity to strengthen our early childhood offerings and better prepare Missouri children for success, which is crucial to the development of a strong workforce.

In addition to early childhood education, we will also focus on increasing opportunities for high-demand training at the high school level.

We need to ensure our students understand the many opportunities out there, whether it be going into the workforce, the military, a community college, technical school, or a four-year degree.

Currently in Missouri approximately, 30 percent of our population has a four-year degree from a college or university, meaning that 70 percent does not.

We need to move away from the stigma that not having a college degree is a failure, when in fact there are many other excellent education and job training opportunities.

This is why we are seeking $750,000 dollars to certify approximately 12,000 new high school students as work-ready through the Work Keys program.

This is a major step that could open doors to students not sure if college is in their immediate plans, but still put them on a path to greater opportunities.

In addition, we are proposing greater access to virtual education for high school students, as well as home school students.

We will also be working to expand opportunities through Jobs for America's Graduates, a program that helps youth graduate from high school and transition to the workforce.

And, for our college-bound students, we have secured a total of $5.3 million dollars to increase Bright Flight and A+ Scholarship funding.

We are also proposing another $19 million dollars for the MoExcels Workforce Initiative.

And, we can do all of this while increasing school transportation funding and still fully funding our Foundation Formula.

This focus on training our future workforce has been a true collaborative effort, and I greatly appreciate the partnership we've had from the private sector and the education arena.

Many of these changes to our workforce system would not be possible without our teachers, and that is why I also want to start discussing ways to improve teacher pay.

However, the solution cannot just be asking the state to write a bigger check.

We are going to ask school districts, school boards, and DESE to propose a better plan for our teachers.

Being an educator today is not an easy job.

By supporting them, we also support our children, their futures, and the future of our state.

Here with us today is Missouri Teacher of the Year - Misty Grandel - from Fordland R-III High School.

No person has a greater impact on our children's education than a teacher who helps them flourish and grow. Ms. Grandel is a shining example of this.

Please join me in recognizing Missouri Teacher of the Year - Ms. Grandel.

And to all of Missouri's outstanding educators, thank you for what you do.

This next phase of our plan will help continue our momentum, but we can't emphasize workforce development without infrastructure.

That is a big reason why approximately $5 billion dollars in new private investment has poured into our state, why our unemployment remains at record lows, why we are pulling ahead of our neighboring states, and we must keep up the hard work.

We will continue to build on critical infrastructure, and we will once again propose setting aside $4 million dollars in disaster recovery funds.

Unfortunately, the flooding we saw last year was some of the worst we have seen in decades and even historically.

But I want to truly thank the work of Senator Hegeman, Representative Andrews, and other legislators for their leadership in their communities during these trying times.

Despite these challenges, we have still made some major accomplishments worth celebrating.

We have proven that we can get through tough times and together, we are creating a new horizon of opportunity for infrastructure in our state.

Some of the most exciting infrastructure investments we will see this year can be tied back to the bold bridge infrastructure plan that you as legislators passed.

More than 250 bridges around the state will be repaired or replaced.

These bridges are not only critically important to their local communities, but also to public safety.

For example, by combining our bridge proposal with federal funding secured by Congressman Graves, Missouri is now on track to significantly reduce the number of deficient bridges in the 6th Congressional District, which encompasses nearly half of our entire state.

And that is a major milestone.

One of the benefits of the plan we laid out last year was not only the immediate impact, but also the additional resources it would free up for other critical projects.

An example of this is MoDOT's recent announcement of a huge investment to rebuild a substantial portion of I-270 throughout North County.

This renovation has been needed for a long time, and because of our bold steps and MoDOT's innovation, we have made a real change to this system.

Another very successful part of our transportation plan last year was the cost-share program, and I am excited to announce that we will again be putting another $50 million dollars toward the cost-share program this year.

And before I move on, there is one more very special project that I am so proud to announce, especially in front of Mayor Lucas and our Kansas City delegation, and that is we will build the Buck O'Neil Bridge.

These investments are exciting to celebrate, and we have been working hard to make them a reality.

We have also been driving greater efficiency and more accountability for Missourians hard earned tax dollars, so that we can reap these returns without increasing taxes.

By rolling up our sleeves and doing the hard work, we have generated impressive cost savings.

The single largest area we have been able to find savings is in the Medicaid system, which accounts for over $10 billion dollars – over one-third – of our state budget.

Under the leadership of Director Todd Richardson, a new level of accountability and enforcement have been put back in place – both common sense things expected by the average Missourian.

The result has been a savings of $84 million dollars, further protecting citizens who need the services most, and taxpayers who deserve their tax dollars be used wisely.

While some in the press are eager to criticize this improved efficiency – or outright misrepresent it – the truth is that this system has been broken for many years and unproductively serving every Missourian who is paying for it.

At the same time opponents have been criticizing our increased accountability, they have also been promoting expanding this system.

But, the reality is that expanding this system comes at the cost of other vital services such as education, workforce development, and improving our aging infrastructure.

So, make no mistake about it, the vague proposal they are not explaining or purposely withholding is a massive tax increase that Missourians cannot afford.

The hard work we are doing to drive efficiency isn't just by supporting policy provisions.

It is fundamentally reforming state government and driving accountability across all systems.

This is a major shift from the same old style of government that is often supported, where small changes are made around the edges, but real changes are thought “too big” and too hard to do.

My administration has and will continue to do the hard work, and the benefit will be for Missouri taxpayers.

The progress we are making is real and exciting, but there is more we can do to improve government and promote our state.

We must have real tort reform.

And, another simple way we can improve government and promote Missouri is by offering license reciprocity to the spouses of the men and women who proudly serve our country in the United States military.

As a veteran myself, I am proud that Missouri is home to over 480,000 veterans, and I hope that we can bring more to our state.

Allowing license reciprocity would not only help us attract more military families, but also fill critical jobs in our economy.

And Senator Brown and Representative Lynch, I am counting on you to get that legislation on my desk, very soon.

From the beginning, our state’s economy and future financial health have always been of utmost importance to our administration, and it is our responsibility to pass this on to the next generation.

So, I have one last proposal I will outline today.

As mentioned before, my administration has been more serious than any other in our financial discipline. We have led by example by again leaving over $100 million dollars on the bottom line.

However, we can do more.

Which is why I am supporting that we put a cash operating expense fund in place to give our state greater flexibility and stronger finances than ever before.

Since the beginning of our administration, our State Treasurer, Budget Director, and my Chief of Staff have been discussing this opportunity, and I am proud that we can finally make this vision a reality.

To initiate this fund, I am proposing setting aside $100 million dollars this year.

And, to ensure this savings remains stable, we will direct Wayfair collections into this fund until it establishes solvency.

And, we will use the remaining portion to pay off debt obligations, as well as provide another funding mechanism for infrastructure programs done on a cost-share basis.

This final allocation would both increase the long-term financial strength of our state, and create another consistent funding source to further update our aging infrastructure.

Our pro-growth policies and conservative budgeting are working.

And together, we can set the stage for greatness for Missouri and our future generations.

It is no secret there are elections in the coming months. Everyone here is well aware of this.

But, I’m sure there are some of you here at the end of your term that feel a little differently about the coming months.

When returning home to the people you serve, at the forefront of your mind will be what you accomplished to help improve your communities.

If we thought more about what we accomplished at the end of our time, we would likely spend our days a little differently.

My guess is that we would spend less time fighting each other over the few differences we have and more time working on the things that we agree on.

We have all seen what the outcome of this behavior is when we watch what is going on in Washington, D.C.

Surely we can do better.

Surely as the Show Me State, where our namesake inherently promotes action and results over words, we have a higher sense of obligation to work together.

Some may argue that all these victories are just coincidental, but I firmly believe they are not.

I believe is it about a commitment to finding a solution while still standing up for your values.

For me, these are values like my faith, my family, and our nation's flag.

And, another value I will always stand up for is protecting those who cannot protect themselves. All life has value, including the unborn!

Perhaps it is my gray hair, but I am at the time in my career when what I leave behind and how I leave it is more important than impressing people and worrying about who I am not.

Make no mistake, in this arena you will be attacked.

You will have to endure reading nothing but speculation about your motives, your commitment, and your beliefs.

But, you also have to choose to stand against these attempts to divide one another, and instead be a leader.

As long as I am allowed to serve the people, I will work hard to make Missouri better and hand it off to whomever follows me in better shape than I received it.

So, my final call is to challenge each of you to know one another better.

This also means that we have to be willing to trust one another more.

And my hope in the near future is that all of us will be able to celebrate more successes with one another, but the real benefits will be for the people of Missouri and our future generations.

It is an honor and privilege to be the 57th Governor of the State of Missouri.

God bless you, God bless the great State of Missouri, and God bless the United States of America.

The Joint Session was dissolved by Senator Rowden.

Speaker Haahr resumed the Chair.

ONE HUNDREDTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the STATE OF MISSOURI

SECOND REGULAR SESSION

FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 8, 2020

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

God is able to provide you in abundance for every good work. (II Corinthians 9:8)

Almighty God, our Creator, whom we seek to serve and to whom we look for guidance, we bow before the altar of prayer at noon offering to You the gratitude and the loyalty of our hearts. We thank You for this new day, fresh from Your hand, with its possibilities for great and good living. By Your spirit, may we always be honest, kind, and forgiving. May we be mild in our criticism of others, patient with those who criticize us, and considerate with those who differ from us. As we follow the example of the Scriptures that instructed us about doing good for others, may we during this new session consistently reflect on the power of the word of God.

Through these historic times, bless our Governor, the Speaker, Members of this House, their families and all who work with them. May the blessing of Your powerful presence rest upon us this day and every day. Together lead us in the paths of unity and peace for Your name's sake here in the People's House.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Missouri State Highway Patrol Troop F Color Guard presented the Colors.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following Proclamation was received from His Excellency, Governor Michael L. Parson.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27, authorizes the Governor to control the rate at which any appropriation is expended by allotment and, further, authorizes the Governor to reduce the expenditures of the state or any of its agencies below their appropriations whenever the actual revenues are less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based; and

WHEREAS, in addition to the power to control the rate of expenditure established in Article IV, Section 27, three percent of each appropriation, with the exception of amounts for personal service to pay salaries fixed by law, shall be set aside pursuant to section 33.290, RSMo, as a reserve fund and not subject to expenditure except with the approval of the Governor; and

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27.2, provides that the Governor notify the General Assembly “whenever the rate at which any appropriation shall be expended is not equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation”; and

WHEREAS, due to a variety of factors, including the three percent reserve that is legally required by section 33.290, RSMo, the rate at which most appropriations are expended is not in “equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation”; and

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27.3, provides that the Governor notify the General Assembly “when the governor reduces one or more items or portions of items of appropriation of money as a result of actual revenues being less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based.”

NOW THEREFORE, I, Michael L. Parson, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27, do hereby make the following notification to the One Hundredth General Assembly of the State of Missouri:

I hereby notify the General Assembly, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27.2 of the Missouri Constitution, that through the first quarter of fiscal year 2020, the rate of expenditure for each of the appropriation lines in the fiscal year 2020 budget attached as Exhibit A is not in equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation.

I further notify the General Assembly, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27.3 of the Missouri Constitution, that I have taken no action to permanently reduce one or more items or portions of items of appropriation of money as a result of actual revenues being less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based in the fiscal year 2020 budget.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Missouri, in the City of Jefferson, this 28th day of October, 2019.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

FIRST EXTRAORDINARY SESSION OF THE SECOND REGULAR SESSION
100TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWELFTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 2020

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Unto Thee O Lord, do I lift up my soul. (Psalm 25:1)

O Spirit of God, whose soft, quiet voice still summons us to turn aside from ways of selfishness, give us Your tranquility til our striving ceases; take from our souls the strain and stress, and let our daily life confess the beauty of Your peace and satisfaction.

In this hope we come now and bow our hearts at this moment of prayer. May we be led into green pastures, beside restful waters, and find restoration of spirit and renewal of our faith in You. Even though we walk through the valley of the shadow of death, we will fear no evil for You are with us, always strengthening and supporting us.

Bless the members of the people's house that they may have wisdom, faith and courage for the experiences of this day, and may they never fail the people or You. May we and others together find the way to peace and justice.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the ninth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

HCS HB 12 - Schroer

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

FIRST EXTRAORDINARY SESSION OF THE SECOND REGULAR SESSION
100TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

EIGHTH DAY, MONDAY, AUGUST 24, 2020

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

With God all things are possible. (Matthew 19:26)

Eternal and Just Creator, amid the encircling gloom of our anxious days and months during this pandemic, enter into our hearts today in a special way, lift us up, lead us on, light the way, and give us courage to go forward with You. At this hour, preserve us, O God, for in You do we put our trust, our hope, and our protection.

Hear us as we pray for all those in positions of influence in our government that they may make wise decisions and choose right paths for our state. Guide our Governor, our Speaker, these Representatives of our people, and all who work beneath this dome that in Your strength they may be made strong, with Your wisdom they may be made wise, and by Your good spirit they may, too, be good.

We ask Your grace on those who serve and protect Your people from crime and violence, as well as those who are victims, plus their families and those who promote rehabilitation.

Give us the assurance that with You all good things are possible, even in the tough and trying times. Save us, O God, help us this day and forever.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

FIRST EXTRAORDINARY SESSION OF THE SECOND REGULAR SESSION
100TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

NINTH DAY, TUESDAY, AUGUST 25, 2020

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

The Lord is good; His mercy is everlasting; and His truth endures all generations. (Psalm 100:5)

O powerful God, Lord of heaven and earth, whose love lives forever and whose truth endures through all generations, hear us as we pray, lifting our hearts to You, this morning under this dome.

You have called upon us to live together as brothers and sisters and have taught us that we belong to each other. Bless all our endeavors leading toward peace in our homes, justice in our courts, and mercy in all our hearts.

Let Your spirit so live in us and move among the leaders of Missouri, and of every state, that they may seek peaceful means to settle disputes, to maintain order, and to establish justice.

Help us all to learn that peace depends upon understanding love, that law and order must be built upon righteousness and truth, and that justice can live only in the hearts of people of peace.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the eighth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

STATE OF MISSOURI
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
100TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

In the Matter of Representative Wiley Price
House Ethics Complaint No. 20-001

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ETHICS

WHEREON, the Committee on Ethics, of the Missouri House of Representatives, 100th General Assembly, pursuant to Rule 8 of House Committee Substitute for House Resolution 137, reports as follows:

1. On Monday, January 27, 2020, the administrative staff of the House of Representatives received a verbal report of a potential violation of House Policy B-5, which prohibits sexual harassment, and House Policy F-8, which prohibits amorous or romantic relationships between a representative and a House employee or intern. The report involved Representative Wiley Price (Respondent) and a House intern.

2. Immediately upon receiving the verbal report, the Chief Clerk of the House, pursuant to existing policy, retained outside counsel to investigate the complaint. Investigative counsel conducted an investigation of the complaint, which included interviewing the Respondent, intern, Respondent's legislator assistant (Witness 1), and another representative (Witness 2) with whom Respondent shared Witness 1 in a legislator assistant share agreement. The investigator prepared an investigative report, which was received by the House on February 12, 2020, and forwarded to the Committee on Ethics.

3. The investigative report stated that on Thursday, January 23, 2020, Respondent shared with Witness 1 that he had sex with the intern the night before, after Respondent, the intern, Witness 1, and numerous others attended a party at a local bar and grill. The report also alleged that upon learning that he would be subject to an ethics investigation in this matter, Respondent attempted to coerce Witness 1 into being untruthful with the investigator and the Committee in order to cover up the offense.

4. On February 6, 2020, the investigator interviewed Witness 1. Witness 1 provided the investigator a detailed report that was consistent with her initial report to House staff. Witness 1 stated that Respondent shared with Witness 1 that he had sex with the intern. Witness 1 stated that Respondent began harassing her upon learning that she had made the report to House staff as a mandated reporter. Witness 1 stated Respondent told her that he and the intern had agreed to lie and state nothing happened between them, and they had deleted each other's phone numbers and all text messages and calls between them from their phones. The investigator deemed Witness 1 to be credible.

5. On February 9, 2020, the investigator interviewed Witness 2. Witness 2's statements were consistent with the testimony of Witness 1. Witness 2 recalled Witness 1 receiving a phone call from Respondent at their office suite, and Witness 2 recognized Respondent's voice over the phone yelling at Witness 1. The investigator deemed Witness 2 to be credible.

6. On February 10, 2020, the investigator interviewed the intern. The intern denied any romantic or sexual relationship with Respondent. The intern denied speaking with or texting Respondent on her cell phone. The intern denied ever having Respondent's cell phone number. Although initially indicating she would provide a copy of her cell phone records to the investigator, the intern later indicated she did not know how to obtain such records, and that any attempt to acquire such records would alert her mother to the investigation, which the intern did not want to do. The investigator deemed the credibility of the intern to be questionable.

7. On February 10, 2020, the investigator interviewed Respondent. Respondent denied any sexual relationship with the intern. Respondent denied claiming he had a sexual relationship with the intern to anyone, including Witness 1. Respondent stated although he and Witness 1 would have work related "spats" from time to time, they were nothing serious and he had no issues with Witness 1. Respondent stated that he has not called the intern on his cell phone, and that he does not have and has never had her cell phone number. Respondent indicated he would be willing to provide a copy of his cell phone records to confirm this, but stated he was not sure how to obtain the records. The investigator deemed the credibility of Respondent to be questionable.

8. On February 17, 2020, in order to prevent the possibility of further harassment or retaliation against Witness 1, the House completed moving Respondent to a different office complex within the Capitol, and assigned Witness 1 to be a full-time legislator assistant for Witness 2. Respondent offered no substitute legislator assistant, so the House assigned a different current legislator assistant for Respondent.

9. The Committee met on February 20, 2020, and, after reviewing the report from outside counsel, voted (9-0) to proceed to a preliminary hearing.

10. The Committee confirmed that the intern was a current House intern assigned to a representative not related to this matter in January 2020. The intern was invited to testify before the Committee on multiple occasions. However, through her Title IX coordinator, she declined to cooperate with the Committee's investigation. Although the Committee made multiple requests for phone records to the intern, she ultimately failed to supply any records to the Committee.

11. On February 27, 2020, Witness 1 testified before the Committee. The testimony of Witness 1 was consistent with her initial report to House staff and to the investigator. Some of the testimony of Witness 1 is as follows:

- a. Witness 1 stated "The next day when he got to work, we went into his office and he closed the door and that's when he told me that he had sex with [the intern] the night before."
- b. Witness 1 stated that in the past Respondent had told her on two separate occasions with whom he had previously had sex.
- c. Witness 1 stated "[Respondent] told me that he had contacted [the intern] and that he had told her to delete his phone number, delete their text messages, and that she wasn't supposed to contact him anymore."
- d. Witness 1 stated that Respondent said "It was consensual. There's nothing wrong with what I did. You're the one that messed up by telling [Witness 2]."
- e. Witness 1 stated that Respondent urged her "to say that [Witness 2] misspoke or I misspoke and that he didn't do anything and it was all wrong. And it was my mess and I had to clean it up."
- f. Witness 1 stated that Respondent said that "if I didn't back his play or back his idea that I was going to lose my job."
- g. Witness 1 stated Respondent told her "where I come from, people die for doing s like this", referring to Witness 1 revealing the contents of her conversation with Respondent as a mandated reporter, and Witness 1 not vouching for Respondent's narrative of the events. Witness 1 stated she was afraid of Respondent after this conversation.

The Committee deemed Witness 1 to be credible.

12. On February 27, 2020, Witness 2 testified before the Committee. The testimony of Witness 2 was consistent with the testimony of Witness 1. Witness 2 recalls Witness 1 telling about Respondent and the intern, and that Witness 2 immediately recognized their duty to report as mandated reporters. Witness 2 also recalled Witness 1 receiving a phone call from Respondent at their office suite, and Witness 2 recognized Respondent's voice over the phone yelling at Witness 1 (not on speaker phone). Also, Witness 2 stated that in the past Respondent had told her on two separate occasions with whom he had previously had sex. The Committee carefully examined the testimony of Witness 1 and Witness 2 and found their accounts to be consistent. The Committee finds the testimony of Witness 2 to be credible.

13. After verifying the cellular telephone numbers for Respondent and the intern in use in January 2020, the Committee requested the Speaker issue a subpoena for phone records relating to this matter. The subpoena requested historical transaction detail for the dates of January 22, 2020 through January 27, 2020.

14. The cell phone transaction records received in response to the House subpoena contained seven phone calls and 26 text messages between Respondent and the intern. Some of these communications were initiated by

Respondent and some initiated by the intern. The first call originated from Respondent on January 23, 2020 at 12:40AM. The final communication was a phone call originated by Respondent in the evening of January 26, 2020 lasting 42 minutes. These phone records clearly indicate Respondent and the intern had each other's cell phone numbers and had communicated, which contradicts their testimony to the investigator, and part of Respondent's testimony under oath to the Committee.

15. On September 15, 2020, Respondent provided sworn testimony before the Committee. Respondent was present with counsel, and both counsel and Respondent were given an opportunity to provide a verbal statement to the Committee in addition to Respondent's testimony. Some of Respondent's testimony is as follows:

- a. Respondent denied any sexual relationship with the intern.
- b. Respondent denied claiming he had a sexual relationship with the intern.
- c. Respondent and his counsel initially denied (four times) ever calling or texting the intern. After being shown an excerpt of the phone records the Committee acquired by subpoena, Respondent then claimed he communicated with the intern to see if Witness 1 had made it home safely from a party the three of them had attended on the night in question. Respondent claimed that the part of the investigator's report that stated he said he did not have the intern's cell phone number was false.
- d. Respondent testified he switched cell phones and is not certain of the location of the phone he was using in January 2020. Respondent stated he would search for the original phone in his home and provide it to the Committee.
- e. Respondent claimed that a week before the alleged sexual encounter with the intern he had given notice to Witness 1 that she was going to be fired within 30 days. This contradicts the testimony of Witness 1 and the investigator's report in which he said he had no serious issues with Witness 1. Respondent claimed Witness 1 fabricated the story of Respondent and the intern as retaliation. When asked, Respondent said he had not told Witness 2 (with whom he shared in a legislator assistant share agreement with Witness 1) that he had given notice to Witness 1; he had not told House administration that he had given notice to Witness 1; and had not documented his issues with Witness 1 or that she had been given notice. Respondent testified that he had arranged for a friend of his from his district to replace Witness 1, but could not recall his name and did not mention him to House administration when they separated Respondent from Witness 1. Respondent testified that the ex-boyfriend of Witness 1 (Witness 3) was aware that Witness 1 was being fired and "came into my office to save his ex-girlfriend's job." On September 22, 2020, Witness 3 testified before the committee that he was unaware that Witness 1 was to be fired, and that he never spoke to Respondent to save Witness 1's job. The Committee deemed the testimony of Witness 3 to be credible.

Ultimately, Respondent also failed to supply the original cell phone or any phone records that would corroborate his version of the events in response to requests from the Committee. The Committee deemed Respondent to be not credible.

16. At the conclusion of Respondent's testimony, held in closed session before the Committee, a cell phone was discovered on the witness stand that was recording audio. The witness stand had just been vacated by Respondent and his counsel, who had both left the room. The phone had been recording Respondent's testimony, and would have continued recording the Committee's private deliberations. The phone was determined to belong to counsel for the Respondent, who stated he was recording the testimony of Respondent before the Committee. Counsel was not given permission to make a recording, and was in direct violation of House rules providing for the confidentiality of the Committee proceedings. The phone was returned to counsel after the audio file was deleted from the device and counsel stipulated that he would not take any steps to recover or otherwise attempt to use the audio file.

17. House records confirm that Respondent attended the mandatory Preventing Sexual Harassment training with all House members on January 14, 2020, and on March 11, 2019.

18. The Committee finds, based upon the testimony and evidence received by the Committee, that:

- a. Respondent misled the House investigator by denying that he had claimed an inappropriate relationship existed between him and the intern to Witness 1 and denied that he had engaged in any cell phone communications whatsoever with the intern;
- b. Respondent committed perjury before the Committee on Ethics by denying that he had claimed an inappropriate relationship existed between him and the intern to Witness 1 and denying that he had engaged in any cell phone communications whatsoever with the intern;
- c. Respondent intimidated and threatened his legislator assistant in retaliation for performing her duties as a mandated reporter;
- d. Respondent obstructed this Committee's investigation by misleading the Committee investigator with regard to his attempts to coerce Witness 1 into changing her testimony;
- e. Respondent obstructed this Committee's investigation by committing perjury before the Committee by denying his attempts to coerce Witness 1 into changing her testimony; and
- f. Respondent's conduct has compromised the ability of the House to provide a respectful, professional work environment.

19. The Committee finds that Respondent's actions involving both the intern and his legislator assistant, and his conduct before this Committee during its investigation, to constitute ethical misconduct and conduct unbecoming of a state legislator of sufficient severity to warrant censure.

NOW THEREFORE, the Committee on Ethics, having given full consideration to this complaint concludes that the issuance of this report is warranted, and recommends that the House of Representatives consider the following sanctions against the Respondent:

1. Censure by the 100th General Assembly, pursuant to Article III, Section 18, of the Constitution of Missouri;
2. Censure by the 101st General Assembly, pursuant to Article III, Section 18, of the Constitution of Missouri;
3. Payment of $22,492.25 to the House of Representatives in costs related to the investigation of this complaint; and

Until the House considers a resolution to censure, the following actions should immediately be taken:

4. Respondent shall conduct himself in a manner that respects the commitment of the House to provide a work environment free of sexual harassment to all members, employees, and interns;
5. Respondent shall have no service from or supervision over any intern for the remainder of his membership in the House. Any legislative employee assigned to Respondent for the remainder of his membership in the House shall be under the direct supervision of the Chief Clerk, who should monitor the Respondent's contact with House employees as appropriate;
6. House Speaker and Minority Floor Leader remove Respondent from any committee assignments;

7. House Speaker and Minority Floor Leader withhold from Respondent any of the privileges of office that the Speaker or Minority Floor Leader deem appropriate;
8. Respondent not be allowed to hold any leadership position; and
9. Any other sanctions the House of Representatives deems just and proper under the circumstances.

At the Committee hearing on December 15, 2020, Respondent was given until 1:00 p.m. the following day to resign as Representative of the 100th General Assembly and resign as Representative-Elect of the 101st General Assembly. Respondent failed to meet this deadline.

This report was adopted by the Committee by a vote of 10 to 0:

LETTER OF RESIGNATION

November 12, 2020

To Whom It May Concern:

It has been an honor and pleasure to serve the people of Missouri in both the legislative and executive branches for nearly 20 years.

My expertise and experience are now needed elsewhere in public service. I wish everyone well. It has been wonderful to work with such a diverse selection of colleagues to make substantial differences in Missouri policies. These friendships are meaningful and I thank my closest friends and staff for always doing your best to aid me in serving the great people of St. Louis County as a state representative, state senator and school board member. I could have never imagined getting a better education than in state government.

I would like to highlight the people who I regard as true public servants in the capitol. Thank you from the bottom of my heart to all of the librarians on the 3rd floor who have diligently served the needs of my office and the former Lt. Governor, Jose Maxwell. Because of your help, I was always prepared for debate and other matters. I do hope you will get a raise next year! I would also like to thank Don Thalhuber and Christine Brauner in the Senate. The both of you are the absolute best people I've worked with in the building in two decades. And since my resignation is a public document, every person should know how special you are to me.

My resignation shall be considered effective on November 12th at 8:59 a.m.

State Representative
86th District

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

SECOND EXTRAORDINARY SESSION OF THE SECOND REGULAR SESSION
100TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRD DAY, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 2020

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

He that doeth the will of God abideth forever. (1 John 2:17)

O Eternal God and Creator, grant that in this morning prayer and during the work of this day we may bear witness to the fact that we are Your humble and trusting children. In our relationship with each other may we be limited in our criticism, just in our judgments, lavish in our praise, and loyal to the best in all of us for the Show Me State during this pandemic.

Give us insight into the needs of our citizens, inspiration to do something beneficial for them, and the confident assurance that You are always with us, sustaining us and supporting us as we endeavor to keep Missouri great in goodness and good in greatness.

Unite us now with all who are striving to safeguard our citizens and grant sincere concern for others to keep our good people safe, educated, and healthy.

And the House says, "Amen!"

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27, authorizes the Governor to control the rate at which any appropriation is expended by allotment and, further, authorizes the Governor to reduce the expenditures of the state or any of its agencies below their appropriations whenever the actual revenues are less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based; and
